

WMES Morning Announcements

Monday, May 17, 2021

Please prepare for O Canada

Click on picture for O Canada to play...

“We would like to begin by acknowledging that we are in Mi’kma’ki (MEEG-MA-GEE), the traditional ancestral territory of the Mi’kmaq people”.

Why do we acknowledge that we are in Mi'kmaq Territory each day?

We are honouring Mi'kmaq people.

For many thousands of years Mi'kmaq people have inhabited Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, large parts of New Brunswick and Newfoundland, and the Gaspé Peninsula in Quebec.

The Mi'kmaq people were the first people to have lived on this land.

In the Mi'kmaq language the land is known as Mi'kma'ki (MEEG-MA-GEE). Mi'kma'ki is considered the ancestral land of the Mi'kmaq people.

We want to show we are thankful for the way Mi'kmaq people welcomed new people from other countries and helped them to survive in these lands.

The original settlers of these lands signed agreements with Mi'kmaq people, called treaties, promising to live in peace and friendship.

Today, all Nova Scotians, both Mi'kmaq and non-Mi'kmaq, agree to keep this promise and continue living in peace and friendship together on these lands we share. We honour Mi'kmaq people who have taken care of this land and, at our school, we show respect for this land and work to make sure we keep taking care of it for all of us.

School Rules Reminders for today:

Just because you aren't in the building, doesn't mean you should forget our school rules!

How are you doing following our school rules when your classroom is at home?

Work hard - and stay safe WMES!

WMES School Rules

Listen to Staff direction	Keep hands, feet, objects to self
Use appropriate language & volume for the learning environment	Have permission to leave the learning environment
Keep to the right while walking on stairs

Quote of the Day:

Mistakes
Are
Proof
That You're Trying!

~Ernest Hemingway

Have a great day WMES!

