“We would like to begin by acknowledging that we are in Mi’kma’ki (MEEG-MA-GEE), the traditional ancestral territory of the Mi’kmaq people”.

A request from Mrs. Wolfe...

Most of you know that we have a few staff members who are moving on to new adventures next year. We'll miss them, but we are excited for them too.

Mrs. MacKay, Mrs. Trider, Mrs. Ford,
And Mrs. Cobb...

I invite anyone to send me a word, or a quote that best describes them so that we can include it in a little "WMES" keepsake that we are going to give them so that they can take a little piece of us with them on their new adventures. If you have something you would like included - you can send it to your teacher to give to me... or, if your teacher is one of the ones we are celebrating then you can send it directly to me at kwolfe@hrce.ca to keep it a surprise.

Shhhhhh ... Don't tell them - it's a surprise.

We would like to wish a very Happy Birthday to:

Celebrating on Saturday:

Eila in 4 Rigby and Josie in 1 Johnson.

&

Celebrating on Sunday:

Audrey in 2/3 Bailey.

Have a wonderful Birthday weekend!

Today's Shout Out:

To the Huska-Regular Family -

Our garden boxes are all fixed up and ready, and the garden is starting to grow. We can't wait to use these spaces as "Outdoor Classrooms in the Fall!"

The some kale, radishes and carrots are already starting to sprout!!
